MEMBER GUIDELINES

1. Members shall be aware at all times that the Club exists to protect the breed and that these aims are to be uppermost in the minds of members in their activities involving the breed.
2. Members will at all times, whether at home, traveling, at shows or at motels, display good sportsmanship, and conduct themselves in a manner as to reflect well upon the Club and the breed.
3. Members agree to educate the public and to honestly represent the breed at all times. This includes making sure interested persons are aware of all general and genetic health problems.
4. All advertising shall be honest and not in any way fraudulent or misleading.
5. Members agree not to sell, consign, or donate dogs to commercial wholesalers, retailers, laboratories, or to an auction or raffle of any type.
6. Members are encouraged to support efforts of the Club relative to health issues concerning the breed, and to have their dogs tested with respect to health disorders known to affect the breed.
7. Members agree to provide adequate care and shelter for their dogs, with safety and good health being utmost in those efforts.
